

Discussion Questions (6-20-2010):

1. Can you share a memory of your dad / father? When you think about the word dad what are some of the thoughts that come to your mind and heart?
2. We live in a culture where there is a significant misunderstanding of the role of men. Why do you think this is? Why are dads so important in the family?
3. This week I talked about being an “Unstoppable Man”. I shared that being an Unstoppable Man Requires...

Leading Courageously

Protecting Bravely

Loving Sacrificially

Whether you are a man or not which of these was the most challenging to you?

4. We live in a society that has invested a significant amount of energy on the topic of leadership. As much information as we have available to us in this area we still have a very long way to go. I always say that the most difficult person to lead will always be you. Do you find this to be true? Why do you think this is the case? Read Joshua's declaration in Joshua 24:14-15. Carefully re-read verse 15. Do you see where this declaration begins? What does this communicate to us?

5. Our greatest example of how we should love is God. Why is this true? There have been countless numbers of times throughout history when people have tried to stop and thwart the message of God's love. However, it has proved to be unstoppable. Read Paul's words in Romans 8:38-39. What do these verses tell us?

6. If we are to follow God's example in love we will communicate our love with words and show our love with actions. How do you do with this? Why do you think this is often a struggle for men? What can you do to follow this example more effectively?

7. God's plan is that we will love unconditionally. This includes our relationships with Him, our spouses and others. How are you doing with this? What steps can you take to love unconditionally?

8. Finish off your group this week praying for any specific needs and also praying for the men in your life, in our church and in our city to be Unstoppable Men.
